

Rhode Island Higher Education Suicide Prevention Advisory Group

Meeting Agenda

Monday, April 8th, 2019

9:30 to 11:00 AM

Phil Parsons Media Theater Room
New England Institute of Technology
1 New England Tech Boulevard,
East Greenwich, RI 02818

9:30 - 9:45: Welcome/ Introductions

- Welcome from Pamela Moffat-Limoges, Director of Public Safety for New England Institute of Technology
- All attendees introduce themselves, the institution they represent, and their role.

9:45 – 10:20: Outside Resource Presentations

- The Healthy Transitions Program at Thrive Behavioral Health and Watershed Event at CCRI: Erika Cannon, LMHC
 - o A presentation from Erika Cannon, Clinical Supervisor of the Healthy Transitions Program at Thrive Behavioral Health
 - o Will overview the Healthy Transitions Program and how it can be suitable for college students as well as the upcoming Watershed Event being held on 4/15 at CCRI's Knight Campus
- Bradley Hospital Learning Exchange Suicide Screening Training Programs
 - o Margaret Paccione, PhD. will share information about Bradley's suicide screening training programs for both behavioral health clinicians and more general populations
- RI Lottery/RI Council on Problem Gambling
 - o Nancy Murray, CAGS, LCDP, ICOGS, Problem Gambling Program Manager to present on resources available from the RI Lottery and the RI Council on Problem Gambling

10:20 – 10:55: Review of Follow-Up Proposals from College Mental Health Summit and Presentation of the Full Energy No Drugs (FEND) Campaign

- Brief presentation of options from Bess Wilbur, Executive Director of the RI Nursing Education Center and Travis Vendetti, Youth Suicide Prevention Program Coordinator
- Comments, suggestions, and overall feedback on the presented options will be solicited
- The most recent iteration of the work associated with FEND and the Preventum Initiative Inc. will be presented, which focused on preventing opioid overdoses
 - o The FEND Campaign was designed by the Preventum Initiative, Inc. to apply artificial intelligence, machine learning, and gamification approach techniques to the field of public health
 - o Discuss possible implementation avenues in Rhode Island higher education

10:55 – 11:00: Meeting Wrap-up

- Set the next meeting date
- Call for volunteers to host